

Don't miss these FREE one-day workshops for voluntary organisations and newly started social enterprises

Starting in Social Enterprise

These workshops are suitable for:

- Newly started social enterprises
- Voluntary organisations and charities wishing to consider developing a social enterprise
- Social enterprises in their first year of trading

The workshop is designed to help your organisation develop good management processes as you identify trading opportunities either for the first time or as an additional activity to current delivery.

Workshops are small and informal, and provide a great opportunity to share ideas and experiences with others.

2010 venues and dates

Exeter	14 January
Torquay	2 March
Taunton	11 March

All workshops run from 10am – 3pm

These workshops are delivered by Co-active Ltd, the social enterprise Agency, in association with Business Link.

Places are limited, so book early to avoid disappointment.

See the reservation form for details on how to book...
